MAIDS ARE IN DEMAND.

Eastern Cities Can Find Places for 100,000 Servant Girls.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.-It developed today that places readily could be found for nearly 100,000 servant girls if the latter could be secured. The demand omes not only from this city, but from the West as well, whence the clamor for domestic help is as insistent as in this city and vicinity. Chicago is on the list of applicants, and inquiries from there indicate that the scarcity of help in that city is as bad as in New York.

Inquiries at Ellis Island. This remarkable shortage in the supply of household maids was developed by the inquiries by an industrial organization into the proportion of female immegrants arriving here within the last six months. The authorities on Ellis island could place 49,000 domestic servants in positions within a radius of servants in positions within a radius of twenty miles of the metropolis within three hours after their arrival. More than as many more could be placed in he West. "The only trouble is we haven't the 40,000," said an official of the immigra-tion bureau. "Never before in the history of this bureau has there been such a great demand for domestic help. It is a notable illustration of the good times that prevail. When times are poor domestic servants are among the first to suffer.

Few Come From England.

"Emigration from the British isles is a disappointment so far as the num-bers are concerned. The British Government is doing all in its power to discourage emigration. A few years ago Great Britain was doing all in her power to encourage emigration. BRONCHO BUSTERS PROVE THEIR SKILL

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN, Utah, Aug. 21.—The broncho busting and rope throwing contest at the county fair grounds today attracted a big crowd. The work of both men was very clever. They rode a number of victous bronchos with apparent case, and roped a number of wild steers, showing great dexterity with the rope.

F. J. Hendershott is soon to assume charge of the Weber county fair. Such is the decision reached by the board of directors, although the announcement has not yet been made. Mr. Hendershott will be known as gen-era! manager and will be the directing head of all matters pertaining to the fair. Hitherto it has been run by a committee, but this method has proven unsatisfactory, and the board has created this new office. No better selection could have been made than that of Mr. Hendershott, as his ability in this line off work cannot be excelled, as all will testify who witnessed the exhibits at the irrigation congress.

The music lovers are anxiously awaiting the appearance of Miss Tout at the Grand opera-house Wednesday evening.

TAGGART GULLS THEM TO A TURN

Knows How to Handle Party Grafters.

Democratic Chairman Wins Admiration as "Glad Hand Artist."

Politicians Find That the Hoosier is a Foxy Diplomat From "Joshland."

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.-Racy of the soft of Joshland, Chairman Taggart of the Democratic National committee-jaunty Tom Taggart of French Lick, Ind .-excites the admiration of his party asso-They say his peer as a gladhand artist never was seen in these parts before. The Hoffman House politicians stopped talking about Parker's probable plurality in South Carolina for awhile last night to discuss the way Taggart had handled the crowd at the opening of the new National headquarters.

That was a test, they said, that showed the caliber of the National chairman. The rooms in No. 1 West Thirty-fourth street were filled with a motley crowd, among whom there was not a single contributor, present or prosective, to the campaign fund. All were on the other of the financial proposition-they wanted to get a share of the money the wanted to get a share of the money the trusts are expected to contribute toward the election of the Belmont syndicate candidate for President. If Taggart had the sub-treasury to draw on he would not be able to find salaries for half of those who assured him of their willingness to serve the party—for so much a day.

The Hoffman House politicians, in describing Taggart's behavior in the trying orded, said he never turned a hair. That expressed it pretty clearly. He was smiling, suave, serene, but he didn't put the ardent patriots who tackled him on the pay-roll. Not one of them but expects to go on later; that's because Taggart is—Taggart had been receiving checks for the campaign fund.

Chairman Cord Meyer of the State committee visited the newly opened headquarters to set pointers on the furnishing of the headquarters in the Hoffman House. Soon after his arrival Vice-Chairman De Lancey Nicoli of the National committee called. Meyer and Nicoli got in a corner by themselves, where the carpenters and other workmen would not disturb them, and chatted for an hour or more. Presumably their talk was about the campaign. In fact, Mr. Meyer admitted they had touched on the political work which the two committees have before them. He said it was understood the National committee is not to interfere with the work of the State committee, but that each shall devote itself to certain lines of campaign effort in which it will have the field to itself.

Hope? Lots of It.

Hope? Lots of It.

Hope? Lots of It.

The campaign managers in the Hoffman House resent the suggestion they have been dilatory in getting down to real work. "We have made our preliminary canvasses as well as Gov. Odell." one of them said yesterday. "What did you find the situation to be?" "Oh, everything was satisfactory, as much so as we had expected, at least of course we have a lot of work cut out for us in the rural districts of the State, they have been without any effective organization in years—ever since the Bryan campaigns. But things are going to be different this year."

they have been without any effective organization in years—ever since the Bryan campaigns. But things are going to be different this year."

"Get anything to encourage you in the hope Parker may carry the State?"

"Lots," was the reply. "Why, in one institution up the State where McKinley got 24 votes in 1900, our canvass showed 20 of these McKinley votes will go to Parker this year. That's only one instance. I could mention many others,"

"Wonder what kind of an institution that was he referred to," a visitor to State headquarters asked when the committee member had withdrawn.

"What kind? A lunnitic asylum, likely, suggested a bystander, who evidently had grown weary of the airy talk of the campaign leaders.

Just how little there is to the claims of the rainbow chasers in the Hoffman House and in Democratic National headquarters may be inferred from the remark made by one of them to the reporters. He had been teld that Joy. Odell and his assistants in Republican headquarters were extremely confident regarding this State.

"Well, so are v.e." was the reply, "We don't propose to let Gov. Odell or any other Republican be a writt more cocky than we are. We are claiming just as much as they are."

Her Stocking Slipped, JAP DESTROYER She Wanted a Pin

Man Unable to Comply With Her Request Has His Nose

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 -"The lady asked me for a pin. She said she wanted to fasten her stocking. I had no pin to give her. She got angry. 'I'd like to have three yards of your nose,' she said, and she tried to pull my nose."

Thus spoke Joseph Herbert, a salesman, adignantly to Magistrate O'Rellly, in the Indignantly to Magistrate O'Relly, in the Myrile Avenue Police court yesterday. Herbert, who lives at No. 51 Ninth street, this city was charged by Mrs. Bierman of No. 522 Second avenue with having struck her while they, strangers to each other, wore riding in an "L" train returning from a pienic at Ridgewood. Herbert yowed he only defended himself against Mrs. Bierman's vigorous attempt to pull his nose.

Magistrate Was Patient.

Magistrate Was Patient.

Magistrate O Reilly heard the conflicting testimony most patiently. A gallant man, the trend of his questions proved that he sympathized with Mrs. Bierman in the desperate situation in which she found herself on the train. She had been dancing vigorously at the nienic and erher-er-at any rate, she needed a pin to hold up her stocking, and she needed it hadly badly.

Having been driven to abase herself by telling Herbert something he never would have known otherwise, she was angry, naturally, when her confidences gained her nothing, when he told her he could not oblige her with a pin.

The wise Magistrate was seeking to determine the true ethics of the case, when there appeared, like a vision, a charming young woman, handsomely dressed, who said she wished to testify.

In Interest of Truth

I come here in the interest of truth and "I come here in the interest of truth and justice," said the young woman, turing a pair of very fine eyes on the Magistrate. I never saw this man," indicating Herbert with a wave of her fair hand, "until I saw him on the train. He has told the truth. He did nothing but defend himself against this woman, who asked him for a pin. Besides," continued the charming witness, argumentatively, but smiling sweetly on his Honor, "what right has any woman to ask a man for a pin to—"Don't mention it, madam," the Magistrate interrupted. "Herbert, you're discharged." harged.

So the precedent was established, and the law stands that when a woman asks a man for a pin he need not give her one.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug 21.—Joseph Kappler, owner of the Columbia brewery Didn't Worry Him a Bit.

The National chairman was around early, yet he found the rooms filled with men awaiting for interviews. He started right in to get rid of them without spending any money. It must be admitted he succeeded handsomely.

"Mr. Taggart, this is my friend, Mr. McManus." Here followed a whispered explanation of the claims of Mr. McManus." The reality glad to meet you. I have realitives by that name. I'm sure we're cousins if we had time to trace up." Then a few words to tell the candidate for a political job there would be nothing for him to do just yet awhile. Another shake of the hand and a parting admonition to "drop in again soon" and there was one man less in line. That was the had been receiving checks for the campuigm fund.

The insurgents have established a privisional Government with the capital at Villa Del Pinar (112 miles from Asuncion), and have nominated Gen. One of these, Deputy Soler, has started for Rio Janeiro and other cap-itals to endeavor to secure the recogni-

PARKER WILL BE KNIFED.

Bryanites Oppose Clique That Tricked Them Out of Control.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.-A majority beyond precedent in Western States and possibly a victory in Missouri—this is the outlook of the Republican National committee. For this expected triumph the Republicans rely largely on the Bryan Democrats, and Harry S. New, National committeeman from Indiana, has expressed positively the conviction that most of them would vote for Roosevelt. The sentiment relied upon to so influence free-sliver men is a feeling of resentment and distrust of Wall street influences.

"It can be foreseen by a short study of human nature what the Bryan Democrats will do," said New. "On the one side is a party which has always told them that they were wrong. On the other is a management and a committee that they believe tricked them out of control and which now has repudlated the doctrines that Bryan and the free-silver men believe right. Bryan may talk for Parker, but he cannot help him. He can get around what he has already said, as shown on little cards which we are sending out.

"I am not chassing rainbows and I do not prophesy that Misouri will go Republican, but we are going to have a surprise there some day. That State had 3M,3M Republican but we are going to have a surprise there some day. That State had 3M,4M Republican votes in 1908. No one knows how many were prevented voting in St. Louis, and in the southwestern part of the State there was practically no organization of the party whatever. The men in that section are like the Kentuckians back in the mountains—nearly all Republicans. Now, the Democrats for eight years have been preaching free silver to the carnest voters of Missouri. This year the party is under the country. I would not be amazed if there were a revolution in Missouri this fail." precedent in Western States and possibly a victory in Missouri-this is the outlook

BROWN MEN WIN NAVAL BATTLE

Fleet Russian Cruiser Novik Sunk.

Greyhounds of the Japanese Navy Were the Victors.

Engagement Occurred Off Korsakovsk Harbor, Where Pride of Russian Navy Ran Ashore.

agement with the protected cruisers Chiose and Tsushima, the greyhounds of the Japanese navy, the fleet Russian cruiser Novik has been vanquished. The fight occurred today. After it the Novik, in a sinking condition, was run ashore in Korsakovsk harbor on the island of Sakallen. Korsakovsk is a port on the southern coast of Sakhallen, off the coast of Siberia, and about 650 miles northeast of Vladivistok. The details of this sen fight are not known here, but it is evident that the Chitose and Tsushima caught up with the Novik yesterday, and that a running fight ensued The contest was resumed and terminated early this morning. Capt Sukeichiro Takahashi, who is in command of the Chitose, reports the engagement in a brief telegram which reached the navy department here this afternoon.

Battle Began Saturday.

He says he first attacked the Russian cruiser Saturday afternoon, and that on Sunday morning he inflicted heavy damage upon her. The Novik nearly sank, but she was beached at Korsakovsk. A shell from the Novik struck the Tsushima in a bunker. Temporary repairs, however, rendered the Japanese cruiser seaworthy and she continued to fight. The Japanese suffered no casualties.

The fate of the crew of the Novik is not known, but it is thought they abandoned their vessel and landed at Korsakovsk. It is generally thought here that the Chitose and Tsushima steamed in close to the Novik early this morning and completed the destruction commenced yesterday.

The news of the destruction of the No-Battle Began Saturday.

The news of the destruction of the Novik has been received in a curious man-ner by the Japanese public. From a prac-tical standpoint it is highly satisfactory, for the Novik could have been most danfor the Novik could have been most dan-gerous as a commerce destroyer, but, considering the matter from a senti-mental standpoint, much regret is ex-pressed at the loss. The Novik has been splendidly landled and bravely fought throughout the war, and Japanese navait officers and the public generally have frequently expressed admiration for the cruiser, her commander and crew.

Steamed Out From Port Arthur. The Novik was one of the Russlan fleet that steamed out from Port Arthur on the morning of August 10 to force its way through the Japanese lines. She entered Tsingstau the night of August 12, but got away from there the night of August 12, having remained less than twenty-four hours. She was then erroneously reper-ted to have been sunk forty miles from Tsingstau.

The Novik was next reported headed for Vandlemen strait at the southern end of Japan, evidently in an effort to reach Vladivostok via the eastern coasts of the Japanese Islands Yesterday it was reported from St. Petersburg that the Nevik had reached Korsakovsk. From the fact that the Japanese cruisers met the Novik off the southern end of Sakalien it would appear that the Russian cruiser had passed through the Kurile Islands and was endeavoring to reach Vladivostok by way of La Perouse strait, avoiding the passage of the Tsugai strait, which was used by the Russian Vladivostok squadron when it raided the eastern coast of Japan. The Novik was next reported headed for
